FEEL BULLY! HEAD CLEAR, STOMACH SWEET, BOWELS RIGHT—"CASCARETS"

You men and women who can't get feeling right—who have headache, coated tongue, foul taste and foul breath, dizziness, can't sleep, are nervous and upset, bothered with a sick, garsy, disordered stomach, and are all worn out.

Are you keeping your bowels clean with Cascarets—or merely dosing yourself every few days with salts, cathartic pills, castor oil and other harsh irritants?

Cascarets immediately cleanse and good, gentle cleansing, too.—Advertise-sweeten the stomach, remove the sour ment

"I had a policy in the Liverpool. London and Globe Company." said Schiller in "It was for $600, and I was to be a name, that I could make a lot of money by having a fire. I was directed to go to "Izzy the Painter" and make the arrangements with him. I agreed to pay "Izzy" $30 for setting fire to my apartment, and I consented also to put the policy in the hands of a broker and adjuster with whom Izzy was working constantly.

"On-the night of December 27, 1911, Izzy told me to go to my work so I could have a good alibi. I did so, and then Izzy came to my apartment and told my wife to take the children and leave the apartment to him. She said she had made arrangements to go to a hospital, so that there would be a public record as an alibi for her.

nile Protective Society. They will be tried Tuesday morning in the Juvenile Court.

According to the police these alleged youthful thieves are responsible for some of the small robberies which have lately been committed in the East End. They are said to have stolen various quantities of provisions and merchandise and sold it to cheap lunch rooms.

The four youngsters were caught in the act of attempting to force one of the windows in Kouri's store. They made no attempt to escape when the officers came upon them. They gave their names as Lowry Hines, Harry Gale. Buck Guthrow and William Barlow. A search is now being made for a fifth boy, said to be oblicated with the quartet now in cust ody.

While it is thought it was a construction of them have been committed by negroes is still entertained by the police and every effort is being made to apprehend them.

In appreciation of his untiring services of more than a quarter of a century, the board of visitors of the Medical College of Virginia, at the concluding meeting of the present membership held in this city Thursday, adopted a resolution of thanks to its chairman, Dr. Thomas H. Barnes, of Suffolk. The entire board is about to resign in pursuance of the merger agreement, and its future membership is now unknown.

Dr. Barnes, who is in his eightieth year, is one of the best known citizens
